Proposal 1- Adding 15 minutes of time for contestants to complete the Fill-In questions.

IV. Contestants will be allowed 2 hours and 15 minutes (two hours) to take the test, 30 minutes for the True and False, Matching, and Multiple Choice sections and 45 minutes for the fill in section. (30 minutes for each of the four sections.)

Beth Noel motioned to approve proposal 1 as written and Josh Aguilar seconded.

Proposal 1 PASSED, unanimous vote.

Proposal 2- Adding to curricular code rules for B.I.G, that State Finals Tests be released within a month after State Finals.

Martha Marin discussed how the release of the past state finals tests will be a resource for new coaches.

Beth Noel motioned to approve proposal 2 as written and Brianna Ellis seconded.

Matthew Marshall and Cheyrell Reece against the proposals because it will put a burden on the creator of state finals tests to consistently come up with new questions that can be too difficult to prepare for.

Kaycee Caldwell discussed how the release of state finals tests wont be useful to B.I.G contestants because they can only compete 1 year and cannot retake test next year.

*MAKE A COPY BEFORE ADDING INFORMATION

Danielle Hyatt discussed an idea of releasing state finals tests every 3 to 5 years.

Kate Smith discussed how new teachers and coaches could benefit from the release of state finals tests.

Amanda Gilbert recommended if there could be a question bank instead of releasing state finals tests.

Cameron Standridge discussed that there be a need for state finals test not to be same from year to year and a need for quality questions rather than random questions.

Proposal 2 FAILED with 10 in the affirmative and 16 in opposition. No rules will be added to curricular code for releasing state finals tests.
